

TIPS FOR PUBLICATION SUCCESS WORKSHOP

In this educational workshop, researchers will learn tips for writing and publishing their research.

We will discuss:

- Writing a manuscript
- Choosing a journal and avoiding predatory journals
- Communicating with reviewers

Presented by American Journal Experts

AJE exists to make research communication faster, fairer, and more useful. Our team of PhDs, who are former researchers themselves, and publishing industry professionals truly understand the importance of communicating research and results to the world. By offering workshops, we aim to help researchers successfully publish and share their work with the global research community.
